Gentlement-Cavarence yes shipped October Bith received. The gentleman got if soon as it came, and sent me to apply it to his brother. In one hour reduced fever one degree. Then, as he was suffering with his bowels very much. I applied it over pain in the bowels till he was susier. Mr. Flanaran, a school tracker, had cheef to be an easier. Mr. Flanaran, a school tracker. tracher, had charge of the case at night. I went up next even-ing. Temperature had been 100 in the morning, was 100 then I amplied the Oxygenor, and gave but lemonade, and in about sime he was swearing. Doctors had been giving physic to mave his bowels, but they had not moved for twenty-four When treatment as shown in the Oxygener book was applied, they moved very freely, after which he want to sleep After supper the doctor from Billings came in, and as the roung man was sweating and his temperature down to 1824. he gave nothing but sleeping powder and applied turpeolina over the bowels. Mr. Finnagan told me he could see the good work of the Oxygenor all night. I know it will do the work if they will continue it. The young man his had the fever for two weeks now, and he isn't as weak as Mr. Austin was when we applied the Oxygenor in his case of smalarial fever, but he is quite thin. Very respectfully, MRS GEO AUSTIN.

Kremiin, Oklahoma, Nov. 3, 1895.

Mr. G. M. Glenn, Mgr., Wichita, Kannas. Dear Sir-The young man here, the geotleman that had the Typhoid Pever, had the fever broken day before yesterday, and he is setting along all right. He took no medicines after the first day. Very respectfully, MRS GMO, AUSTIN,

Marquette, Kansas, Oct., 8, 1861.

Mr. G. M. Glenn, Mgr., Wichita, Kannas. Dear Sir-Yours fifth at hand. The Oxygenor I have is a wonderful thing. I would not part with mine for any price, if I could not get another in its place, because it has eased two lives in my family. It has done more good than Hot Springs did. It cured my wife where doctors had felled for years,
